

NOITS

Fourteenth annual workshop

Reykjavík, 11-12 May 2012

General Information

NOITS 2012 will be held at the University of Iceland, May 11-12.

Presentations both days will take place on the second floor in a department building called ODDI, which is about 10 min walk from the center for Reykjavik. ODDI is located at a street called Sudurgata, very close to the Nordic house, and also close to the main university building. The conference room is ODDI 201.

Travel to Iceland

Several companies maintain regular flights to Iceland. You should reserve a flight to Keflavik international airport KEF available at <http://www.kefairport.is/english/>

Transport

Keflavik international airport is located 50 km or a 40-45 min. drive from Reykjavik, and there are flight buses leaving regularly from Keflavik to Reykjavik. You should tell the bus attendant which hotel you are going to. Credit cards are accepted for both the Fly bus and Taxi. See the flybus schedule at www.re.is/Flybus/ and some more available trips at <http://www.re.is>

Currency

The official currency in Iceland is Icelandic Krona (ISK).

Exchange rate is available at the Central Bank of Iceland webpage www.sedlabanki.is

Weather forecast for the next week

The weather forecast for various places in Iceland is available on <http://en.vedur.is/>

More information about Iceland

<http://www.iceland.is/iceland-abroad/>